Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry

08.02.2011 NA No. 8
August 2, 2011

Tokyo Electric Power Co. Inc.
President Toshio Nishizawa

Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry Banri Kaieda

Regarding the Collection of a Report on Maintaining Water Injection into Units 1, 2, and 3 Reactors at Fukushima Dai-ichi Nuclear Power Station, Tokyo Electric Power Co. Inc.

Pursuant to Article 67, Paragraph 1 of the Act on the Regulation of Nuclear Source Materials, Nuclear Fuel Materials and Reactors (Act No. 166, 1957), the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry orders your company to provide a report by August 3, 2011 on the following matters, in order to verify the validity of the emergency measure which your company is implementing pursuant to Article 64, Paragraph 1 of the same Act.

If there are grievances regarding this action, pursuant to the provisions of Article 6 of the Administrative Appeal Act (Act No. 160 of 1962), an administrative appeal may be made, in writing, to the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry within 60 days from the date one day after the day on which your company became aware of the fact that this disposition was made. However, no administrative appeals may be made when a period of one year has elapsed from the date one day after the date of this disposition, even if it is within 60 days from the date one day after the day on which your company became aware of the fact that this disposition was made.

Following the decision regarding the aforementioned objection, an action for revocation of this disposition may be filed against the State (represented by the Minister of Justice) as defendant, within six months from the date one day after the day on which your company became aware of the fact that a decision was made in response to the aforementioned administrative appeal, pursuant to the provisions of Administrative Case
Litigation Act (Act No. 139 of 1962). However, no action for the revocation of the disposition may be filed when a period of one year has elapsed from the date one day after the day on which the decision on the administrative appeal was made, even if it is within six months from the date one day after the day on which your company became aware of the fact that the decision on the administrative appeal was made.

Furthermore, an action for the revocation of the original administrative disposition may be filed without obtaining a decision on an administrative appeal, if the case falls under any of the following 1 to 3: 1. where no decision is made even after a period of three months has elapsed from the date one day after the day on which an administrative appeal was made; 2. where there is an urgent necessity in order to avoid any considerable damage that would be caused by the original administrative disposition, the execution of the original administrative disposition or the continuation of any subsequent procedure; 3. where there are other justifiable grounds not to obtain a decision on an administrative appeal.
