Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry

06.22.2011 NA No. 2
June 22, 2011

Tokyo Electric Power Co., Inc.
President Masataka Shimizu

Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry
Banri Kaieda

Regarding the Collection of a Report on Injecting Nitrogen into the Primary Containment Vessel of Unit 2 at Fukushima Dai-ichi Nuclear Power Station, the Tokyo Electric Power Co., Inc.

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 67, Paragraph 1 of the Act on the Regulation of Nuclear Source Materials, Nuclear Fuel Materials and Reactors (Act No. 166, 1957), the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI) orders Tokyo Electric Power Co., Inc. (TEPCO) to submit a report by June 24, 2011 regarding the below required items in order to verify the validity of emergency measures under Article 64, paragraph 1 of the same Act.

If there are grievances regarding this action, pursuant to the provisions of Article 6 of the Administrative Appeal Act (Act No. 160 of 1962), an administrative appeal may be made, in writing, to the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry within 60 days from the date one day after the day on which your company became aware of the fact that this disposition was made. However, no administrative appeals may be made when a period of one year has elapsed from the date one day after the date of this disposition, even if it is within 60 days from the date one day after the day on which your company became aware of the fact that this disposition was made.

Following the decision regarding the aforementioned objection, an action for the revocation of this disposition may be filed against the State (represented by the Minister of Justice) as defendant, within six months from the date one day after the day on which your company became aware of the fact that a decision was made in response to the aforementioned administrative appeal, pursuant to the provisions of Administrative Case Litigation Act (Act No. 139 of 1962). However, no action for the revocation of the disposition may be filed when a period of one year has elapsed from the date one day after the day on which the decision on the administrative appeal was made, even if it is within six months from the date one day after the day on which your company became aware of the fact that the decision on the administrative appeal was made.

Furthermore, an action for the revocation of the original administrative disposition may be filed without obtaining a decision on an administrative appeal, if the case falls under any of the following 1 to 3: 1. where no decision is made even after a period of three months has elapsed from the date one day after the day on which an administrative appeal was made; 2. where there is an urgent necessity in order to avoid any considerable damage that would be caused by the original administrative disposition, the execution of the original administrative disposition or the continuation of any subsequent procedure; 3. where there are other justifiable grounds not to obtain a decision on an administrative appeal.

Required Items

The following matters related to the necessity and safety of the operation injecting nitrogen into the Primary Containment Vessel (PCV) of Unit 2 at Fukushima Dai-ichi Nuclear Power Station (NPS):

(1) implementation procedures for the operation and the effect on preventing a expected hydrogen explosion:
(2) impact on surrounding environment of the potential radioactive materials released from the PCV due to the execution of this operation;
(3) impact on the surrounding environment of the potential radioactive materials, if, hypothetically, sudden hydrogen combustion were to occur in the PCV;
(4) method for controlling the exposure of workers when they undertake the construction for connecting the nitrogen injection equipment to the PCV.
